

Day-1

Name :

Do not Write in this marginDo not Write in
this margin

Ques:- How did the abolition of the East India Company's trade monopoly under the Charter Acts of 1813 and 1833 accelerate India's transformation from a commercial outpost to a full-fledged colony.

Answer:- East India Company was a commercial body, formed in 1600, and it had established factories in various parts of ~~the~~ India to carry out trade activities.

Background

The Company officials were making huge profit ^{through} with trade but they were also involved in ~~cor~~ corruption, misadministration etc.

Name :

Do not Write in this marginDo not Write in
this margin

So, several acts were enacted including Charter Acts of 1813 and 1833, to regulate EIC affairs and to abolish their trade monopoly in India.

① Regulating Act of 1773

↳ established parliamentary insight oversight over company rule.

② Pitt's India Act of 1784

↳ separation of political and commercial functions of the company.

③ Charter Act of 1793

↳ strengthened crown supremacy over company.

Name :

Do not Write in this margin

India's transformation from a commercial outpost to a full-fledged colony

Do not Write in
this margin

Under Charter Act of 1813;

① End of Company's monopoly on Indian trade (except in tea and with China)

↓

Now all British merchants could trade with India.

② Ban of on Christian missionaries was lifted.

↓

Bishopric of Calcutta established

③ ₹1 lakh/year allocated for the promotion of education, science & literature.

↓

led the creation of a class of English educated Indians.

Name :

Do not Write in this margin

Do not Write in
this margin

Under the Charter Act of 1833

- ① End of EIC's trade monopoly completely,
- ② Governor-general of Bengal was now called as governor-general of India.
- ③ Legislative powers of Bombay and Madras were centralised in Calcutta.
- ④ first law commission of India was created to codify Indian laws.
- ⑤ Bishopricks in Madras and Bombay were established.

Implications of both charter Acts

- ① EIC became a administrative body completely.

Name :

Do not Write in this marginDo not Write in
this margin

- ② Unification and centralisation of the governance system of India under British empire.
- ③ Laid the structural foundation of the British Raj.
- ④ Helped Britishers to achieve Gold, Glory and God in India which are the imperatives to colonise a country.

Thus, the charter Acts of 1813 and 1833 helped Britishers in terms of territorial occupation, economic exploitation, cultural and social domination, which helped India's transformation from a commercial outpost to a full-fledged colony.