

3- प्रश्नों की संख्या दीजिए

Candidate must not write on margin

The office of president of india has evolved from being a nominal head to an institution of significant influence. "Examine the constitutional provisions related to the president and analyze how the role has evolved over the years."

In india president is a nominal head or Constitutional head of State with its executive powers are exercised by council of minister headed by Prime minister.

- Art 53 :- executive power is vested in president.

Art 74 :- president Act as an Aid and advice of the council of minister.

Art 111 :- president's Assenting or returning bill for reconsideration.

Initially president had limited powers or authority.

Over the time president as a rubber stamp for the cabinet evolved by.

- Political crisis
- ~~exerc~~ exercising it power in constitutional crisis.

→ in government formation → hung parliament in case of hung parliament, president invite leaders to form government

1996 → president Shankar Dayal Sharma invited Atal Bihari Vajpayee to form government

→ use of veto power → Pocket veto

- Pocket veto used by president Zail Singh in Indian Post Office (Amendment) Bill.
- delaying it indefinitely.

→ Role in Constitutional Crisis : Emergency

- President Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed signed emergency proclamation without cabinet approval. (1975)

→ Role in Coalition politics :-

President's role became more pronounced in ensuring stable government.

K.R. Narayanan insisted NDA government prove its majority before appointing Atal Bihari Vajpayee as PM.

→ Role in providing special responsibility to governor in states

- Maharashtra & Gujarat: (Article 371)
to form or estb separate development board for Marathwada and Vidarbha - MAH.
for Saurashtra and Kutch - Gujarat.
- equitable allocation of fund for development
- Making provision that a report on working of board would be placed before SLA.

→ Provision for Assam and Manipur :-

President is empowered to,

- creation of committee from hilly and tribal areas in Assam and Manipur legislative assembly.
- governor's responsibility are assigned by president for proper functioning of these committee.

→ President acting as pressure group :-

President office's social media handle is also very active on current issues. And when first citizen of India speak, it act as a ~~pressure~~ pressure on elected representatives. because president's words are followed by millions of citizen.

- Ram Nath Kovind on One Nation one election

Initially foramer of constitution did not wanted to give executive power to president as India follow parliamentary system. But still president's office has evolved from Nominal head to institution and had provided stabilization to indian democracy.